

PRESS RELEASE

European Association of Communication Directors

Brussels, 22 December 2006

EACD board decides to hold general assembly and conference in June 2007

At its first meeting on December 21, 2006, the board of the European Association of Communication Directors decided to hold the association's 2007 General Assembly in June in Brussels. In order to offer its members, who come from all over Europe, an opportunity for networking, discussion and qualification, the association will simultaneously organise a two-day conference on European Communication on June 11 and 12, 2007.

The EACD was founded on November 6, 2006 in Brussels and connects communication professionals who work in a wide variety of fields from all over Europe.
