European Communication Summit to take place at the Résidence Palace

The European Communication Summit, hosted by the European Association of Communication Directors and the magazine Communication Director, will take place at the Résidence Palace, located at the heart of Brussels' European quarter, on June 11 and 12, 2007. Home to the International Press Centre, the building offers modern conference facilities in an Art-Déco atmosphere.

The gala event on the evening of June 11, during which the European Communication Award will be presented, will take place at the Concert Noble. Located centrally within walking distance from the Residence Palace, it is one of Brussels premier venues and will provide the ideal background for this highlight of the European Communication Summit.
